“In an automated world, it’s great to be able to pick up the phone and talk to someone who gives a damn. When the stock market plays up, our advisor is a calming voice that tells us how things are going to play out – and he’s not been wrong yet.”

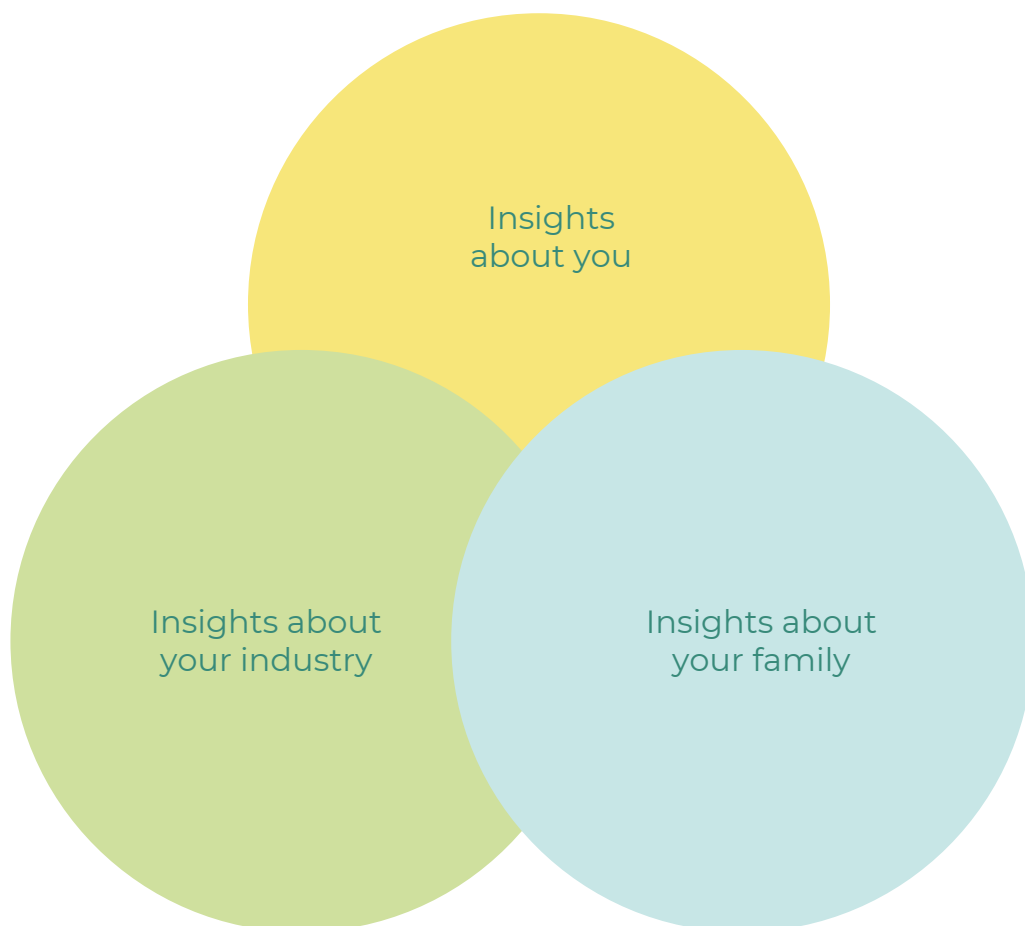

Jim,
Retired Police Officer
Client of WMP since 2005

How we do it

The Real Retirement Specialists

No matter where you are on your retirement journey, WMP optimises your financial situation by combining three vital knowledge sets. We understand the sort of person you are, the nuances of your chosen profession, with a genuine interest in the circle of care that you are a part of. The benefit of this approach is proven over nearly twenty years of helping Western Australians retire better.

Why WMP?

Three reasons to choose WMP

Experience

Contemplating retirement can be daunting because the experience is so new. But it's not for us. After 20 years of helping people on this journey, we can guide you forward with confidence.

Clarity

We help our clients understand where they are at on their financial journey, where they want to get to and how they're going to get there. We remove the fear of the unknown and replace it with the excitement for opportunities ahead.

Relationships

The reality is that families are entwined across generations. And both ends of the age spectrum are facing new challenges as they support each other. Not only are we specialists in successful retirement and experts in your chosen profession, but our advisers take the time to understand your needs through the lens of family. So who makes up your circle of care?

Clients with confidence

“Ex-police officers are a pretty sceptical bunch. So when twenty of these characters told me about their experiences with WMP, I listened.”

Stuart,
Retired Police Officer
Client of WMP since 2004

“I trust WMP with my life. I had heard horror stories about officers coming out of the force and finding themselves in retirement with nothing. And that’s where I was heading. I was going to be broke in a year. But not now.”
